

⑤.

Health Tourism.

Medical tourism.

Wellness tourism

[Medical tourism is perfect. ~~learn~~]

PAGE NO. _____

DATE

Medical tourism is where health care services are sought and delivered outside the home country/State of the customers. In other words medical tourism or medical travel is the act of travelling to other country or States to obtain medical dental and surgical care.

Initially introduced by travel agencies and mass media to denote the rapidly growing practice of travelling across international borders to obtain health care. It also refers to the practice of health care providers travelling internationally to deliver health care.