

10 No - Show.

A No-Show occurs when a customer does not check-in at the reserved hotel before the check-in dead line on the date booked most hotel will charge the customer for the rooms they held. A guest not check-in on time at a resort "might be charged for the entire stay. There is currently no regulation for these conditions can determined its own policy. For example some resort allow a 30 day cancellation and his customer his subject to a service charge. Mostly hotel charge one room night stay and cancellation charges.

If the room reservation is cancelled before 48 hrs of the check-in dead line.

In case of reservation is cancelled before or with 24 hrs the hotel may charge 50% of the Hotel as per cancellation charges.
