SECTION - B

( Descriptive Type Questions )

1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

We sometimes think it would be very nice to have no work to do. Now we envy rich people who have not to work for their living, but can do just what pleases them all the year round. Yet when we feel like this, we make a mistake. Sometimes rich people are not as happy as we think, because they are tired of having nothing to do. Most of us are happy when we have regular work to do for our living especially if the work is what we like to do.

Questions :

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| i) What do we think sometimes ?                              | 1 |
| ii) Why do we envy rich people ?                             | 2 |
| iii) Why are rich people not as happy as we think they are ? | 2 |
| iv) What makes us happy ?                                    | 2 |

OR

Science has glorified machinery. It has increased the efficiency, though this has led to some unemployment and insanitary conditions.

The use of tractors in the field, other agricultural instruments and chemicals and insecticides have increased the average output. The wonders of science are countless. Science has given man comforts and facilities in every field. It can also be used to eliminate poverty, clean slums, increase production in fields as well as factories and for other constructive purposes.

Questions :

- i) How has science glorified machinery ? 1
- ii) What has it led to ? 2
- iii) What has science given us in agriculture and other fields ? 2
- iv) What can be eliminated with the help of science ? 2

2. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

Some people think that the aim of education is merely to give knowledge. These people want students to read books, and do nothing else but add to their knowledge. Others believe that knowledge alone is not enough ; only that which enables a man to earn his living can be called education. Some people think that knowledge is more important, others believe that education should solely aim at making good citizens. In fact, education should aim at giving knowledge as well as self-reliance.

Questions :

- i) What do some people think to be the aim of education ? 1
- ii) What do others think ? 2
- iii) What is the true aim of education ? 2

- iv) Why do some students want students to only read books ? 2
