

- 6 Every plan is based on carefully considered assumptions, is known as the principle of _____.
- | | |
|---------------------|-----------------------|
| A Limiting Factor | B Primacy of planning |
| C Planning Premises | D Periodicity |
- 7 _____ is the lifeblood of an organization because all decisions are based on this.
- | | |
|----------------|-----------|
| A Alternatives | B Finance |
| C Information | D Efforts |
- 8 Merits of Line Organisation includes:
- | | |
|-------------------|--------------------|
| A Simplicity | B Discipline |
| C Prompt Decision | D All of the above |
- 9 _____ is a kind of compensation giving monetarily to employees based on work performances.
- | | |
|---------------|----------------|
| A Selection | B Remuneration |
| C Development | D Training |
- 10 _____ decision is long-term decision.
- | | |
|------------|---------------|
| A Tactical | B Operational |
| C Routine | D Strategic |

Part – B (Do as Directed)

(10)

State whether the following statements are true or false:

- Motivation does not help in improving an image of organization.
- People different in personality, so they can be handled in the different manner.
- Communication process does not happen between or among two or more parties.
- Social responsibility and business ethics together tell what a business organization should do.
- Conciseness means Brevity.
- Motivation is discouraging the employees.
- Base of human relations approach is that workers should be treated as Assets.
- The decision-making is not an integral part of planning.
- Informal groups that are not planned earlier but will originate automatically in an organization.
- Co-ordination is not a continuous process.
